This week, MediaCom's Katie Grosvenor was recognised as one of 35 WOMEN UNDER 35 2016 by Management Today.

The impressive list features a new breed of businesswoman; unapologetically ambitious and supremely confident. Katie started at MediaCom as a PA in 2004, going on to be the youngest ever UK Marketing Director, to Head of New Business and Marketing and has recently taken on the new challenge as Global Operations Director for Mars – one of only three women to hold this position in a network of 7,000.
