05 OCT 2016

On Tuesday 4 October, Mediacom hosted its second Inclusion event focusing on gender equality in the work place. The session focused on The Glass Wall, the book written by MediaCom's Chief Strategy Officer Sue Unerman and Pearl & Dean's CEO Kathryn Jacob, highlighting success strategies and tips for women in the workplace.

The event featured a theatre style panel discussion and Q&A moderated by MediaCom's CEO Josh Kricheski. Joining our panel were some of the best advocates of gender equality in the workplace. Our panelists managed to not only provide a thorough insight on gender biases at work, but also inspire the next generation of young women with tips and advice on how to tackle potentially difficult situations in the workplace.

Our panelists included Kathryn Jacob – CEO of Pearl & Dean, Sue Unerman – Chief Strategy Officer MediaCom, Shivani Uberoi, Sky's Head of Women in Leadership and Bev Turner – LBC radio presenter and Journalist.
