MediaCom and Save the Children launch interactive audio adventure for children

The interactive story allows listeners to choose the path Mica the bear makes during its journey to Earth and includes real-life stories of children supported by the charity.

MediaCom and Save the Children are celebrating the real stories of children's courage around the world.

Introducing Mica's Moon School – a ground-breaking interactive audio adventure powered by Amazon Alexa. Activated by the command – 'Alexa, enable Mica's Moon School', via any Alexa device including the app, children can choose the direction of the story as Mica the bear meets six inspirational children on its journey to Earth.
